

Join us in fostering Academic Learning Communities (LCs) at WCU

SMALLER CLASSES

Learning Community classes are capped at 24 students

BETTER OUTCOMES

Retention rates of >80%
Integrative and applied learning
Increased engagement
Development of meaningful, long-term relationships

COLLABORATION

Find areas of overlap between courses
Share pedagogical approaches and course objectives
Work together with other faculty across disciplines

FACULTY BENEFITS

Funds to use for professional development
On-campus training with other LC faculty
Funds to use for student experiences
Letter of recognition from the Provost

THEME-BASED LEARNING

Apply classroom concepts to larger, more complex issues
Develop ideas through multiple courses and semesters

A BROAD SPECTRUM

Courses taught in a variety of disciplines

BIOL

Gainey, M.

CHEM

Eckardt, M.
Wallen, J.

CJ

Sefiha, O.

COMM

LeBeau, S.
Noltensmeyer, C.

EDCI

Chapman, A.
Miller, M.

ENGL

Birkhofer, M.
Bridgers, R.
Bruder, M.
Worley, P.

ENT

Perry, L.

ENVH

Byrd, B.

HEAL

Beaudet, B.
Kaysing, N.
Sinyard, A.

HIST

Macaulay, A.

ND

Tallant, A.

PRM

Bobilya, A.

PSC

Michelsen, N.

PSY

Gordon, W.

SOCW

Dulworth, J.

SM

Tyler, D.

SPAN

Oxford, L.

USI

Colaluca, L.
Snyder, M.
Stewart, J.
Wells, G.

For more information visit <http://learntogether.wcu.edu>

or contact David Tyler (dtyler@wcu.edu, x3549)

Add your course to the list for next year!