

M.A.Ed. IN MIDDLE GRADES EDUCATION

The Master of Arts in Middle Grades Education program at WCU is designed for teachers who already have an 'A' level middle grades education teaching license. Our online-only program offers an innovative and challenging curriculum designed to prepare teachers to develop and apply research skills, expand and deepen content area knowledge, and further the understanding of child and educational psychology in order to provide opportunities for curriculum development and exploration of current methodology.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- 100% online programming totaling 30 credit hours that can be completed in as little as two years
- Versatile program allows candidates to choose between concentrations in Literacy and STEM which lead to Advanced Competencies licensure in Middle Grades Education
- The program is aligned to the National Board Teaching Standards and the North Carolina Professional Teaching Standards
- Availability of grants, scholarships, and forgivable loan programs

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- Applicants must hold (or be eligible to hold) a North Carolina Class A teaching license, or a comparable license from another state
- In addition to the Graduate School Admission requirements, applicants must submit:
 - A letter of intent describing reasons for pursuing the M.A.Ed. in Middle Grades Education, professional goals as a participant in the program, and possible research interests
 - Three recommendations from former instructors or employers who can judge the applicant's aptitude for graduate study

GRADUATE COMPREHENSIVE PORTFOLIO:

Students are required to complete and present a Comprehensive Portfolio. This is a formal, organized set of documents and artifacts demonstrating the teacher's growth, as a self-directed, reflective practitioner.

REASONS TO EARN THE M.A.Ed. IN MIDDLE GRADES EDUCATION:

- Graduate school provides connection and camaraderie with others in the profession
- Graduate programs provide great support and resources for teachers pursuing national board certification
- Graduate programs keep professional educators connected with research and new developments in the field
- The M.A.Ed in Middle Grades Education is a stepping-stone to a doctoral program in education
